EXPERIENCE

Front-End Web Developer (Full-Time), Peapod; Chicago, IL – 2013 - 2014

- I adapted modern code to work within the context of an extinct language (jhtml);
- I wrote beautiful code that included thorough and yet concise documentation, using a test-driven development approach;
- I collaborated with the UI / UX designer to create designs, interfaces and interactions that had character.
- I researched, experimented and presented new frameworks that will be used to structure the new site.

Front-End Web Developer (Freelance), Tribune Company; Chicago, IL – 2013

- I brainstormed, collaborated and developed site features and interactions with the User Experience team.
- I translated designs from the User Experience team into CSS3, HTML5, JavaScript and JSP code.
- I co-managed the Advertiser Services' repository of the upcoming Los Angeles Times and Chicago Tribune sites.
- I fixed, debugged, optimized and extended existing code.
- I created channels for communication to reduce barriers and increase understanding.

Front-End Web Developer (Full-Time), Artistic Digital Services; Evanston, IL – 2012 - 2013

- I translated designs into code using the latest HTML5, CSS3, jQuery and Javascript standards;
- I fixed, extended and optimized existing websites;
- I taught clients how to use and update their websites;
- I created, expanded and deciphered WordPress themes;
- I migrated and adapted content to WordPress and WolfCMS;

Front-End Web Developer (Freelance), Cubicle Ninjas; Glen Ellyn, IL – 2012
